WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE...

Grounded in God • Growing in Community • Acting in Love

Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, we are thankful that you are with us today, and we hope that you will stay for a bit after worship for refreshments and conversation. First Church is an open and affirming, just peace congregation of the United Church of Christ. If you'd like to know more about us, please introduce yourself to one of the ministers after church and explore our website at www.firstchurchcambridge.org.

Children of all ages are welcome in our worship. Picture books, children's Bibles, and activity packets can be found in the Children's Book Corner located by the door to the parish building (to the right of the chancel). Children may visit the Book Corner at any point during worship. Nursery care for infants and toddlers is located through that door, up the ramp, and through the fire door. Fussy babies and their caregivers are invited to use Sage Hall, our basement play-space, or the Narthex in the weeks leading up to the completion of the Hastings Common.

Large print bulletins and assistive listening devices are available.
Please ask a greeter for assistance.

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

- For Eric Riedel who is recovering from recent surgery for lung cancer.
- Anne Maybury, Karen Anne Zee's 93 year old mother, who fell and is in the hospital.
- For Brad Waterman, Karen Anne Zee's brother-in-law, has just been diagnosed with thyroid cancer
- For the family and friends of Ann Barns, who died peacefully on October 1, and whose life we celebrate in a Memorial Service today at 2:30 p.m.
- For Anne Holtzworth's father James Holtzworth, who is in hospice care, and for Karin Case's mother-in-law Brigid McIntosh, who entered hospice care this week.
- For Mark Destler, Alyce Gowdy Wright and baby Griffin as Alyce continues to receive treatment for an aggressive return of cancer, for Ann McCann's sister Beth, for Susie and Perry Neubauer's family member, Marguerite McKenna, for Marc O'Brien's brother Tom and for his sister Anne, for Tony Amoury Alkhoury's mother Maram, and Karin Case's sister Cheryl, and for all who are in treatment for cancer.
- For the community of Sutherland Springs, Texas, in the aftermath of Sunday's shooting, for all who lost their lives or were injured, for the loved ones of the eight people killed in the violent attack in New York City last week, and for all who are impacted by gun violence.
- For all people recovering from recent natural disasters, including wildfires in California, earthquakes in Mexico, and hurricanes in Puerto Rico and Texas.
- For the Rohingya people of Myanmar, who are experiencing horrific atrocities as they are displaced from their home, and for all the world's refugees.
- For undocumented immigrants seeking sanctuary in houses of worship around the country, including First Church Amherst and University Lutheran Church in Harvard Square. May our federal government find a path of compassionate justice for all immigrants seeking safety, security, and well-being in our nation.
- For our nation as it continues to wrestle with ongoing expressions of white supremacy, anti-Semitism, Islamophobia, homophobia, and misogyny.
- For our world and our planet as tensions continue between the US and North Korea.
- For all political leaders, including our current administration, that they may know God's spirit of wisdom and justice in these troubling times.
- For ourselves, that we may open our hearts and minds to all those we disagree with or don't understand, and find the grace to listen, connect, and join together in our common humanity.

If you would like us to include a prayer request, please contact Dan Smith, Karin Case, Francine LaChance, or Kirsten Manville by Wednesday morning, or fill out a prayer request card found in your pew.

A Prayer for Transgender Day of Remembrance*

Holy One, As we prepare for next week's Transgender Day of Remembrance our hearts are full.

We call to mind persons young and old, of every race, faith, and gender expression who have died by violence.

We remember those who would not hide, or did not pass, or did pass, or stood too proud. Some we know; others we have read about;
others we will never know about. Yet each one was made in Your own image. We mourn their senseless deaths. We give thanks for their lives.
We pray for the strength to carry on their legacy of vision, courage, and love.

We remember also and mourn the loss transpersons who have taken their own lives. In death may they be welcomed back into the fullness of Your life and love.

We honor transpersons amongst us, those we know and those we don't.
We pray as a community for resolve to root out the injustice, ignorance, and cruelty that allow despair to flourish. Help all persons come to understand that Your creation has many faces, many genders, and many holy expressions.

Blessed are You, Gracious God, in whom no light is extinguished.

— adapted from Rabbi Reuben Zellman, Siddur Sha'ar Zahav

**Transgender Day of Remembrance is observed annually on November 20.*

TODAY'S HAPPENINGS

BELOVED COMMUNITY: LOOKING AHEAD TO 2018 Sunday, November 12, 10:00 a.m.

Margaret Jewett Hall We will look ahead to new opportunities for First Church in 2018, including an in-depth Road to Freedom Study Group on Civil Rights to begin in Lent, and a Road to Freedom Study Tour (Civil Rights Tour for adults), dates to be determined, but anticipated for Fall, 2018. We'll also share exciting plans for Dan Smith's upcoming Sabbatical, his proposed study on Remembrance and Reparations, and parallel opportunities for our congregation. This Christian Formation hour will be of interest to all at First Church, especially to those interested in becoming more involved in Building Beloved Community.

The Way Forward Our annual Stewardship season has begun! Each of us are invited to prayerfully examine our support of our church and its ministry and mission. Stewardship packets have been mailed, and can be accessed on our website here: 2018 Stewardship booklet and 2018 Stewardship Pledge Card. Next Sunday, we will bring our Pledge Cards forward during the Offertory, and hope to have each member's participation in this important covenant of support. If you have questions, please speak with any of the ministers or member of the Stewardship Committee.

UCC Climate Justice at the State House Forum (at FCC), Today at 12:30 p.m., after coffee hour, MJH Come hear how the UCC and other groups are asking Governor Baker to Take a Stand for the Climate and Stand Against New Fossil Fuel Infrastructure. We have invited Craig Altemose, Director of the Better Future Project, to brief us on what we are asking of Gov. Baker, and what is planned for the Nov. 16 sit-in at the Governor's office. We will have handouts of the letter delivered to Gov. Baker's office in September by a coalition pulled together by the Better Future Project including 350 Mass, Clean Water Action, Toxics Action Center, Massachusetts Sierra Club, UU Mass Action and Elders Climate Action. We will also have handouts of the spiritual discipline for prayerful phoning of the Governor written by Mass Conference UCC Climate Justice Intern Emma Brewer-Wallin.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR ANN BARNES Today, 2:30 p.m., Lindsay Chapel All are welcome at the service celebrating the life of beloved artist, First Church Member, and long-time resident of the Boston area.

NIGHT SONG, SOLEMN MYSTICAL COMPLINE Tonight, 7:30 p.m., Sanctuary Spend some time at the end of the day nourishing your soul at Night Song. Vox Equalis (treble voices) and Daryl Bichel offer ancient and contemporary chant and improvisation by candlelight, providing space for contemplation and prayer.

FUTURE HAPPENINGS

CONFIRMATION CLASS AFTERNOON RETREAT Sunday, November 19, 1:30–4:00 p.m., King’s Chapel, 58 Tremont Street, Boston First Church’s 8th and 9th graders are walking together on the journey of confirmation this year. While we meet twice monthly for two-hour sessions on some of the BIG topics of faith formation and tradition, we are also experimenting with a series of three Sunday afternoon retreats in collaboration with the Confirmation classes of Old South Church, First Church Somerville, and Memorial Church. On November 19 the four groups will meet at King’s Chapel in Boston for an interactive event on Christian service and discipleship. Included in the afternoon will be a hands-on project to benefit several local programs that feed the hungry, including our own Friday Cafe.

FAMILY NIGHT November 21 & December 5, 5:30–7:00 p.m. Families with young children (infants through elementary school, typically) are warmly invited to gather in Sage Hall (our basement playspace) for a pasta-and potluck supper. Pasta and sauce will be provided; you bring a salad or side dish or dessert to share. Questions? Contact Sarah Higginbotham (shigginb@firstchurchcambridge.org)

“LIFE TOGETHER” TUESDAY November 28, 5:30 p.m., Hastings Common and Margaret Jewett Hall We had hoped that our new kitchen would be ready to launch a November round of our all-congregation “Life Together” Tuesday Dinners. Alas, we will need to hold off on making it a series until 2018, but we would like to get a taste and will have one Tuesday Dinner on November 28. Plan to join us in our new Kitchen, Hastings Common, and Margaret Jewett Hall, as we begin to live into our new space and new life together! We’ll provide the pasta and water! You bring the rest (salad, side, or dessert, cider). We can break bread and begin to lay some groundwork for some intentional practices of how we serve and share meals in Christian community.

VOLUNTEER FOR THE ADVENT WORKSHOP December 3, 12:30 - 2:00 pm, Margaret Jewett Hall Each year, we mark the first Sunday of Advent with a workshop of art and craft in Margaret Jewett Hall following Morning Worship. We are currently seeking volunteers to lead each activity. Instructions and supplies are provided; you simply learn the craft and teach others who visit your table. If you would like to help, please contact Sarah Higginbotham (shigginb@firstchurchcambridge.org)

ALTERNATIVE CHRISTMAS FAIR, December 10, MJH Have you made your list for our Fair? Fair Day is one month away! You’ll be able to buy something lovely for yourself and everyone on your list from over a dozen vendors. Remember that every dollar you spend at the Fair goes directly to the good causes the vendors represent.

MONDAY NIGHT MEDITATION RESUMES IN ADVENT! Are you looking for a place to settle in for some silence and quiet reflection in the midst of a busy week? Or looking to begin your Advent season with intention? Discover an oasis of calm every Monday night from 6-7:00 p.m. in The Well (Room 22) beginning December 3. Whether you’re interested in trying meditation for the first time or deepening your current practice, an experienced meditator or simply curious, all are welcome. This on-going series will meet every Monday night, except in the case of holidays and building closures. For more information or to receive updates about meditation at First Church, contact Karin Case, karin-case@firstchurchcambridge.org

FUTURE HAPPENINGS

ADVENT MEDITATION RETREAT Saturday, December 9, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., Sanctuary
Treat yourself to an afternoon of meditation and reflection as we begin the Advent Season. This two-hour retreat will feature sitting meditation, walking meditation, and sacred music under the apse (dome) in our beautiful sanctuary, followed by tea and refreshments (at 4 pm) in the newly-renovated Hastings Common. No meditation experience necessary. All are welcome. Please register by going to the church web site, <http://www.firstchurchcambridge.org>, or by contacting Karin Case, karincse@firstchurchcambridge.org.

FRIDAY CAFÉ HAT DISTRIBUTION Winter hats are now being given out at the Friday Café! Hat distribution will continue throughout the winter, so if you have more hats to donate, you may give them to Marian Smith or Kate Layzer. Children's hats will be donated to the Children's Clothing Exchange at Solutions At Work. For more information, contact Marian Smith at msmith829@gmail.com.

WIDER COMMUNITY EVENTS

ACTION FOR RACIAL JUSTICE Workshop: "Building Relationships through Conversations and Sharing our Stories on Race and Racism: Laying the Groundwork of Action to promote true Racial Justice." Saturday, November 18, 10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m., Margaret Jewett Hall
As we share our own stories in small groups and listen closely to others, we will work to bridge gaps in understanding and develop empathy. The program will be facilitated by First Church member Karlene Griffiths Sekou, M.Div, Harvard Divinity School. She has offered this workshop in many locales, including Judson Memorial Church in New York City. An active core leader in Black Lives Matter-Boston, Karlene is a nationally sought-after speaker and panelist. Tickets cost $50 each; students and income-challenged, $30. Several free scholarships are available from the Missions and Social Justice Committee. Please contact Alice Kidder flintkiddr@aol.com or Claire Cocroft claire.cocroft@gmail.com for information. Please make your check payable to Cooperative Metropolitan Ministries, which is a co-sponsor of the event, and bring it on November 18.

2017 BOSTON TRANS DAY OF REMEMBRANCE (TDOR) Sunday, November 19, 6:00 p.m., Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont Street, Boston
The annual Transgender Day of Remembrance (TDOR) memorializes individuals who have died throughout the world in the previous year because of anti-transgender hatred. Each November the worldwide transgender community turns its attention to family, friends, and loved ones lost to violence and prejudice. A tradition inspired by the Allston, MA, vigil for Rita Hester, a trans woman murdered in 1998, this day has become the worldwide rallying point for a community long under siege. We will gather in the Cathedral for a brief service, with members of the community speaking about the importance of the day and remembering those who have been taken from us due to transphobia and violence. During the service volunteers will read the names of trans people who have been murdered in the past year. If you would like to volunteer to be involved in the service please contact Persia: Persiabrewer@gmail.com. After the vigil we will share in a potluck meal at the Cathedral.

MUSIC LOVERS, SUPPORTERS OF COOPERATIVE METROPOLITAN MINISTRIES, AND THOSE INTERESTED IN INTERFAITH PROGRAMS, Sunday, November 19, 7 p.m.

The world renowned pianist Kimball Gallagher will give a benefit concert to support CMM's programs of racial justice, interfaith understanding, youth programming, and clergy training. He will discuss the music he has found on his world tours. He is Director of 88 International, which fosters musical humanitarian projects with NGO's throughout the world. The event takes place in Berenson Hall, Hebrew College, 160 Herrick Road, Newton Centre, MA 02459. Tickets are $30 for students and income-challenged; $50 for the general public. You may register on Eventbrite at globalharmonymusic.eventbrite.com or by giving a check made out to CMM to Alice Kidder. Questions? call her at 617 276-6227. Thank you.

NEW COATS NEEDED BY CITY MISSION, BOSTON Please donate NEW coats to youth of all ages without winter coats. UCC churches in the greater Boston area have been asked to set up coat drives. Starting next week, a box marked "City Mission" will be in the narthex. Kindly place any coats you purchase in this box during the next four weeks. If you wish to donate a gently used coat, for any age including adult, place it in the box marked "Used Coats." These will be given to Friday Café and Solutions at Work. Thanks to Katie Omberg for facilitating this drive for City Mission- Boston. For questions, please contact Claire Cocroft at claire.cocroft@gmail.com or Alice Kidder at flintkiddr@aol.com.

MUSIC OF FIRST CHURCH STAFF COMPOSER PATRICIA VAN NESS will be performed in two concerts presented by Capella Clausura, Saturday, November 18 in Lindsey Chapel of Emmanuel Church on Newbury Street in Boston, and Sunday, November 19 at 4 pm at Eliot Church in Newton. For more information visit www.Clausura.org.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 19

10 A.M.	Walk Through
11 A.M.	Dedication: During Worship and after Luncheon
12 NOON	Luncheon

FIRST CHURCH BUILDING
WALK THROUGH 10:00 a.m.

Meet in the Hastings Common

Join us for a tour of our new spaces, inside and out, and for an in-depth look at all the progress we have made in this enormously complex project that has impacted every level of our building inside and out! Together we can step back, marvel at what the Spirit has accomplished in our midst, and give thanks to God (and again to Don Johnson).

for such a time as this
DEDICATION AND LUNCH
SUNDAY, Please join us as we dedicate our new spaces and celebrate the generosity which enabled the beautiful vision we had for our building and ministry to come to fruition. Both during worship and the lunch following we will express our joy and gratitude as we come to the end of the renovation project.

Greater Boston
Interfaith Organization

GBIO CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM RALLY Monday, November 13, 1 p.m., State House Join First Church members and other GBIO members for a rousing Rally for Criminal Justice Reform at the Grand Staircase of the Massachusetts State House (2nd floor.) The House is considering a comprehensive criminal justice reform bill, recently approved by the Senate, that contains many of the GBIO-supported priorities to create a more fair and humane system.

Our presence at the State House will make a difference at a critical time. Senator Will Brownsberger, the author and proponent of the Senate bill, told a GBIO Delegates Assembly last week ..."the advocacy that you did over the last few months allowed us to get where we got...Thank you, GBIO, for bringing attention to some of the key issues of reforming our Criminal Justice System".

The Rally is an opportunity to learn, to advocate and to influence our lawmakers. All are welcome, no expertise needed. If you would like to ride the T to Park Street with other FCC people, meet Ann McCann in front of the Harvard Coop at 12:15 p.m., or, if you can drive others, please let Ann know. Parking is available in a garage under the Boston Common. Please contact Ann at amccann44@gmail.com or Will Erickson at will.erickson@teaworks.org to let us know you'll attend.

ALSO, PLEASE CALL your state representative in the next few days and let him or her know that you support criminal justice reform as advocated by GBIO. For convenience, use the following link to the Phone-to-Action System: <http://p2a.co/Oscp2zy>. The link will get you to the appropriate representative and provide a script. Phone calls are important because legislators pay attention to them.
