THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

A Service of Healing

VOLUNTARY

All Glory Be to God on High

J. S. Bach

*HYMN 414

This Is a Day of New Beginnings

*GREETING

Renate Rose

L: Welcome, sisters and brothers! In this hour we gather together in praise.

C: We gather together in prayer.

L: We gather together in longing.

C: We gather together in love.

L: Then let us welcome one another

C: in the name of the One who welcomes us.

*PRAYER OF PRAISE

All: Holy One,

You invite us to bring our wounds,
and you welcome us with healing.

You invite us to bring our despair,
and you welcome us with hope.

You invite us to bring what enslaves us,
and you welcome us with freedom.

By your mercy, take all our hurts and sorrows and receive us into the embrace of your healing balm. Amen.

ANTHEM

Tu Pauperum Refugium

Josquin des Pres

Tu pauperum refugium
tu languoris remedium,
spes exulum,

You are invited to stand. Hymns preceded by a "C" may be found in the beginning section of the hymnal. The C (Cambridge) - section contains hymns written and composed by current and past members of First Church.*

fortitude laborantium via errantium, veritas et vita.

Et nunc redemptor Domine
ad Te solum confugio,
te verum Deum adoro,
in Te spero, in Te confide.

Salus mea, Jesu Christe, adiuva me,
ne unquam obdormiat
in morte anima mea

*Thou art the refuge of the poor, remedy for afflictions, hope of exiles,
strength of those who labor, way for the wandering,
truth and life.*

*And now, Redeemer, Lord, in thee alone I take refuge;
thee, true God, I adore, in thee I hope,
in thee I confide, my salvation, O Jesus Christ.
Help me, lest my soul ever sleep in death.*

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

SILENCE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

L: Let us pray for pardon, healing, and peace.

C: Gracious God,
when we add to the pain of others,
and to the pain of this world,
have mercy and forgive us.
When we turn away from the needs of others,
or the needs of this world,
have mercy and forgive us.
Grant that we respond to your forgiveness with courage, compassion, and love.
And grant us the power of healing and hope
You showed us in your son, Jesus, in whose name we pray.
Amen.

DECLARATION OF GOD'S FORGIVENESS

OFFERTORY

All blessed, All Holy

Alexander Kastalsky

*DOXOLOGY AND PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Praise God, the source of life and birth,
Praise God, the Word, who came to earth,
Praise God, the Spirit, holy flame,
All glory, honor, to God's name. Amen.

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE...

Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, we are thankful that you are with us today, and we hope that you will stay for a bit after worship for refreshments and conversation. First Church is an open and affirming, just peace congregation of the United Church of Christ. If you'd like to know more about us, please introduce yourself to one of the ministers after church and explore our website at www.firstchurchcambridge.org.

Large print bulletins and assistive listening devices are available.

Please ask a greeter for assistance.

Children of all ages are welcome in our worship. Picture books, children's Bibles and activity packets can be found in the Children's Book Corner located by the door to the parish building (to the right of the chancel). Children may visit the Book Corner at any point during worship.

Nursery care for infants, toddlers and preschoolers is located through that door and down the hallway (up four stairs to the door on the right). Fussy babies and their caregivers are invited to the Hastings Room, just across the hall from that same door, where the service is broadcast through speakers.

LEADING WORSHIP TODAY IS Terry McKinney, Minister of Mental Health & Healing. Assisting with worship are Reebee Girash, Sabbatical Interim Minister and Karen McArthur, Affiliate Minister of Stewardship & Finance. Our liturgist is First Church member Renate Rose. Peter Sykes, Director of Music, is playing the organ and directing the choir.

he YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED section of the bulletin is omitted from this online version to preserve the privacy of those mentioned. If you'd like more information on the people we're praying for this week, please contact the church office at parishadmin@firstchurchcambridge.org or 617-547-2724 and we'll get the information to you.

TODAY'S HAPPENINGS

HEALING SERVICE TODAY At today's worship service, we will have an opportunity to reflect together on God's healing peace, and to participate in a simple healing ritual involving a brief prayer, laying on of hands, and for those who wish, anointing with oil — an ancient Christian practice now being revived across the ecumenical spectrum of churches. The morning service will follow the normal order, but at the time of the sermon, we will offer instead a brief introduction to the ritual, and then invite forward all who would like to participate. For those who prefer to remain seated, there will be music and a time of silence for individual prayers.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING PREP SESSIONS: DISCUSSION OF 2013 CHURCH BUDGET, Today, October 14, 12:30 p.m., Hastings Room 2011 marked the first year in recent history that the subsequent year's budget was presented to the congregation well before Annual Meeting. To continue the effort to provide transparent church budget information and ample time for discussion, this will be the second of two discussion sessions. Bring your questions. The Fall Congregational Meeting will then be held on Sunday, October 28, at 12:30 p.m., in Margaret Jewett Hall to vote on the budget.

BOOK GROUP: HOSPITALITY, FOOD, AND COMMUNION Our discussion of the first half of Sara Miles' book Take This Bread is today, October 14 around 1:30 p.m. in the Hastings Room. (following the Forum). Contact Reebee (rgirash@firstchurchcambridge.org) for more info, or if you need a copy of the book.

MENTAL HEALTH & SPIRITUALITY GROUP Today at 2:00 p.m., Tower Room How do emotional struggles and mental health difficulties affect your relationship with God? Does your faith change your experience of mental health issues? Join us in the Tower Room each Sunday from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. as we hold these questions and our experiences in the healing light of Christ. The group is open: you may attend as often or as little as you like, and newcomers are always welcome. Talk to or e-mail Terry McKinney (tmckinney@firstchurchcambridge.org) or Carter West (stbosal@arczip.com).

CONFIRMATION CLASS (8th - 9th graders) Today at 4 p.m., Dan Smith's office This year the 8th and 9th graders of the church are walking together on the journey of Confirmation. The first meeting is today at 4 p.m. in the Senior Minister's office.

NIGHT SONG: SOLEMN MYSTICAL COMPLINE Sundays in September and October at 8:30 p.m. Sanctuary. Night Song will continue its 8:30 p.m. Compline service through the end of October. The setting is simple, with no icons, very few candles and no incense. And there is no jazz instrumental component, making it 30 minutes in length and more traditional in nature. The music will be Gregorian chant and Renaissance polyphony. Night Song is based on Compline, the last daily service of Christian worship, dating back to monastic life in the Middle Ages. Offered in the quietness of the evening, Night Song invokes a sense of protection and peace for the night that is to come.

NO ORDINARY TIME: Fall Adult Formation Opportunities

With Dan on Sabbatical through January, Reebee Girash serving as Sabbatical Interim Minister, Terry now serving as half-time Minister of Mental Health & Healing, Julie Rogers among us as our Affiliate Minister of Youth & Young Adults, and Brent Coffin as Scholar-in-Residence, this fall and winter will be no ordinary time.

While there are seasons for proclamation, there are also seasons for deep listening. With so much new and changing, we have the chance to shift our awareness to listening deeply for how God is moving in our midst: sometimes stirring us, sometimes asking us to be still, meditating on where God is moving in our lives, the lives of others, and our congregation's future.

To reflect that, the theme of our adult formation activities during this season will be No Ordinary Time: An Invitation to Listen and Learn. Our 10 O'clock Hours will offer several opportunities to participate in this theme of listening and learning during a time of change. Starting on September 16th, our offerings will include:

- ◆ Praying the Psalms, in the Hastings Room, led by Terry McKinney and others: a six-week gathering to enter the Psalms more deeply, meditating on them, partnering in dialogue about their meaning to us, and praying about how they can and have shaped our lives. If you would like to follow along with the psalms, here they are in the order in which we will be reading them: #16, #42, #51, #116, #103, 46.
- ◆ Living the Questions Café, in Margaret Jewett Hall: an opportunity to get to know one another better and explore our faith more deeply, where each week a theme is introduced and shared for meaningful discussion in small groups. Our time each week will close with prayer.

Week Five (10/21) – Sojourns

Question for small group discussion: Share a story of a time when you were the sojourner. What was it like to be the stranger, the traveler, or to be lost? Who helped you find your way to shelter? Who welcomed you home?

FUTURE HAPPENINGS

SENATORIAL CANDIDATE ACCOUNTABILITY ACTION FOR GREATER BOSTON INTERFAITH ORGANIZATION Monday, October 15 at 7 p.m., Temple Israel, (477 Longwood Avenue, Boston) Don't miss this opportunity to be present for a key event in this nationally-watched Senate race between Elizabeth Warren and Scott Brown. Your participation counts! Please confirm your attendance and also if you will need or can offer rides to either Cynthia Shoemaker (ShoemakerCynthia@Yahoo.com) or Karen Anne Zee (Achanx3@Yahoo.com).

FAMILY NIGHT Tuesday, October 16, 5:30 – 7:00 p.m. First Church families gather every other week in Sage Hall for a simple potluck supper and a chance to share the joys and challenges of family life together. The main dish (usually pasta and sauce) is provided; bring a side dish, dessert, or drink to share. The fall schedule includes Family Nights on September 18; October 2, 16, and 30; November 13 and 27; and December 11.

SHELTER LECTURE AND LUNCHEON Sunday, October 21 at 12:30 p.m., Margaret Jewett Hall Immediately following worship on October 21, the 2012 Doris Beauvais luncheon and lecture will be held in Margaret Jewett Hall. This year the lecture will be presented by Amanda Ashcraft, Director of Outreach Ministries at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City. There is no charge for either the luncheon or lecture but donations to support the work of the First Church Shelter will be accepted.

MONTHLY NEWCOMER SESSIONS ON THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH, 12:15 P.M. We are blessed to be graced by many visitors and newcomers to our church community. While we have always held newcomer sessions around a joining Sunday, we will now be offering monthly gatherings with a topical focus. Hopefully this will allow newcomers to get to know one another and to enter into engaging dialogue around topics ranging from our faith journeys to basic tenets of the Christian journey. We will also continue to share information about First Church and the UCC. Current members are also encouraged to attend to get to know people and share in the dialogue. Please fill a plate with lunch in Margaret Jewett Hall, and bring it with you to the Hastings Room. The next Newcomer Session is Sunday, October 21 at 12:30 p.m. and the next Joining Sunday is October 28.

THIRD-SUNDAY JAZZ WORSHIP We are thrilled that Carolyn Wilkins and friends will continue to bring us vibrant and eclectic Jazz, Gospel, and African-American spirituals on the third Sunday of each month. Nancy Weil will continue to work with our staff to resource this service. Whether you are a Jazz regular or a curious newcomer to our afternoon worship, join us for communal prayer and Holy Communion. The next service is Sunday, October 21 at 5:00 p.m. in Margaret Jewett Hall and will be followed by a time of fellowship.

FIRST CHURCH IS GOING ON THE ROAD! Friday November 9, 8-10 p.m., Hispanic Baptist Church of Boston Save the date for a special worship experience. We are responding to an invitation from the Hispanic Baptist Church of Boston www.iglesiabautistaboston.com to provide an FCC-style worship experience for them in their fall season of worship exchange. Reebee Girash, Peter Sykes, Ellen Rohan Ball and others in collaboration with the Building the Beloved Community are beginning to plan this. The HBCB is a Spanish-speaking immigrant church that meets in the basement of Tremont Temple in downtown Boston. This is a wonderful opportunity to worship with brothers and sisters of different backgrounds and cultures, to learn a little about them and show how we worship as well. You will hear more about this event; for questions speak to Ellen or Reebee. Please email Ellen (erohanball@aol.com) if you plan to attend as the Baptist church will host a light supper after worship. The music for this event will be important, and WE INVITE YOU to speak with Peter Sykes if you'd like to participate in the choir for this event! Hasta luego, amados!

THE EARTH STEWARDSHIP TEAM invites all FCC folks to participate in an upcoming climate action vigil - the Campaign for a Livable Climate. Some FCC folks will be there on the morning of October 26. Here is the description from 350 Massachusetts: "Starting in late October and continuing through Election Day, join us in a round-the-clock vigil for a safe, just, and livable future for all at Government Center in Boston. Rallies, with keynote speakers, will be held at strategic times to bring as many of your voices as possible to this call to action. We invite people of faith to join in this witness with our neighbors. The devastating impact of climate has been felt from Massachusetts to West Africa, and all points in between. It is a moral and spiritual imperative to take action for the healing of Creation. This vigil will include an interfaith prayer vigil at a time to be determined - and we hope people of faith will also be present throughout. SIGN UP AT 350MA.ORG. Speak to Reebee Girash or Susan Redlich with questions.

GET INVOLVED

SABBATICAL UPDATE Senior Minister Dan Smith is on sabbatical through January 31, 2013. Our Sabbatical Interim Minister is Reebee Girash. She can be reached at church or by email or phone, and she invites you into thoughtful conversation during this season. Reebee and Terry McKinney will be jointly working to coordinate pastoral care. For pastoral emergencies please note that an on-call number is listed in Reebee's outgoing voicemail. For further details on Dan's sabbatical, see the brochure and recent Event Newsletters.

RIM/CAMBRIDGE urgently needs a two-bedroom, lead-free apartment in or near Boston for a recently-arrived Iraqi refugee family staying temporarily with a relative. Maximum rent $1200. Contact Pauline Fennel (paulinefennel@alum.syracuse.edu) or Ann Curby (ann_curby@alumnae.mtholyoke.edu)

NO ORDINARY DINNER! It's fall, and time to launch a new round of our wildly successful Covenant Dinners. Enjoy food, fellowship and conversation with other First Church folks in a home setting. Get to really know someone you may have just seen in church or at coffee hour. We need hosts to start the ball rolling for the next year. Please get in touch with Dave Kidder (flintkiddr@aol.com; 617-924-7236) or Beth Loomis (haas.d@comcast.net; 617-851-2505) if you'd like to host a dinner. Once we have a few dinners scheduled, we'll begin signing up diners at coffee hour. Thanks!

MEMBERS' AREA SECTION OF CHURCH WEBSITE The members' area section of the website is up and running! Please visit the First Church's homepage and click the link that says Members Area to login and try it out. Whether you have been a part of our congregation for a few weeks or for a lifetime, as an official member or a friend, you are welcome to sign on for access to our church directory, prayer requests, a First Church blog, small group announcements, board minutes, budgets, and more. Update contact information, post photos and also email each other through our site (note: actual email addresses remain hidden). Your information will not be accessible to anyone but members and friends of our community. Please login and check it out!

2ND ANNUAL SOCIAL JUSTICE FILM FESTIVAL 2012

Three Friday Evenings: Sept. 28, Oct 12, and 19

Three different, inspiring films showcase just such acts of courage and will leave you filled with hope! Come to one or all three. Brought to you by The Mission and Social Justice Committee, the Palestine/Israel Task Team, and the Beloved Community, whose members will lead post-film discussions. Each film will begin at 7 PM in Margaret Jewett Hall. Refreshments will be served.

"It is from numberless diverse acts of courage and belief that human history is shaped. Each time a man (sic) stands up for an ideal or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he/she sends forth a tiny ripple of hope."
—Robert F. Kennedy.

September 28
Home Front:
Portraits from Sheikh Jarrah

Four video portraits chronicling the resolve of a neighborhood in East Jerusalem and the support it receives from the most unexpected of places. A Palestinian teenager, an American born Israeli mother, a Palestinian community organizer and a former Israeli soldier non-violently resist the takeover of a neighborhood by Israeli settlers.

October 12
Kinyarwanda:

Forgiveness is Freedom
Winner of many prizes in film festivals this is the moving story of acts of courage and community during the Rwandan genocide. Directed by Alrick Brown, Kinyarwanda is based on true accounts from survivors who took refuge in the mosques opened to them by local imams. The Missions and Social Justice Committee has invited the Islamic Society of Boston Cultural Center to participate in the showing of this film with a possibility it will also be shown there.

October 19
Can We Talk:

Learning from Boston's Busing/
Desegregation Crisis
Commissioned by the Union of Minority Neighborhoods this film aspires to prompt a long over-due conversation about public education and racism, classism and social injustices that have plagued not only the Boston public schools, but the city of Boston as a community. Made by media producer Scott Mercer, the film contains many powerful stories of ordinary people. Donna Bivens, coordinator of the Boston Busing/Desegregation Project at UMN will be with us to lead the discussion.

The Social Action Committee of Congregation B'nai Brith, Somerville

presents our

Fifth Annual Interfaith Text Study Program:

Mysticism in The Three Abrahamic Religions

Sunday, October 28, 2012 – 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Please join us for conversation and kosher/hallah refreshments at 6:30.

Temple B'nai Brith, 201 Central St., Somerville

An interfaith discussion featuring:

Rev. Mary Luti

Dir., Wilson Chapel & Visiting Professor of Christian History and Worship,
Andover Newton Theological School

Dr. Mohamed Lazzouni

Visiting Scholar of Islamic Studies,
Boston College

Prof. Phil Weiss

Asst. Prof. of Philosophy,
Wheaton College
Danvers, Congregation B'nai Brith

The program will be introduced by Rabbi Eliana Jacobowitz, Congregation B'nai Brith.

The Jewish, Christian and Muslim religions each have deeply held mystical teachings, which have influenced each other as they developed over many centuries in many places. Our three presenters, each with extensive knowledge of their own tradition, will present overviews of mysticism in their faiths and illustrate aspects of their traditions with examples from text.

The presentation will be followed by ample time for general discussion.

If further information is needed please call
Sara Lennox (617) 628-8869 or Ellen Stone (617) 776-2829
For directions please visit www.templebnaibrith.org

We regret that Temple B'nai Brith is not yet wheelchair accessible

First Church Covenant Testimony

Adopted 1990

We believe that our covenant with God and each other calls us:

To love God with all that we are, and our close and distant neighbors as ourselves;
To seek peace with justice and equity for all people;
To engage in non-violent resistance to evil;
To respect and preserve God's earth;
To foster community across every barrier and division;
To attend to God's unfolding and reconciling word;
To support each other in our frailties and strengths, that we may embody that love which overcomes fear and death.

This we testify, confessing always our reliance on God's grace in Christ, and in the power of the Holy Spirit.
