WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE...

Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, we are thankful that you are with us today, and we hope that you will stay for a bit after worship for refreshments and conversation. First Church is an open and affirming, just peace congregation of the United Church of Christ. If you'd like to know more about us, please introduce yourself to one of the ministers after church and explore our website at www.firstchurchcambridge.org.

Large print bulletins and assistive listening devices are available.

Please ask a greeter for assistance.

Children of all ages are welcome in our worship. Picture books, children's Bibles, and activity packets can be found in the Children's Book Corner located by the door to the parish building (to the right of the chancel). Children may visit the Book Corner at any point during worship. Nursery care for infants and toddlers is located through that door and down the hallway (up four stairs to the door on the right). Fussy babies and their caregivers are invited to the Hastings Room, just across the hall from that same door, where the service is broadcast through speakers.

PREACHING TODAY IS Karin Case, Minister. Assisting with worship are Dan Smith, Senior Minister, Karen McArthur, Minister of Stewardship & Finance, Taj Smith, Ministerial Intern, and Rich Goode, First Church Deacon. Our liturgists are First Church member Jean-Dany Joachim and First Church child Imogene Goode. Peter Sykes, Director of Music, is playing the organ and directing the choir.

The YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED section of the bulletin is omitted in the online version to protect the privacy of those mentioned. To find out who we are praying for this week, please contact the church offices at parishadmin@firstchurchcambridge.org or by calling 617-547-2724. IN THIS SPACE we share personal, congregational, national, and global prayer requests. If you would like us to include a prayer request, please contact Dan Smith, Karin Case, or Kirsten Manville by Wednesday morning or fill out one of the prayer request cards found in your pew.

TODAY'S HAPPENINGS

GOING DEEPER: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE SPIRITUAL PRACTICE OF DISCERNMENT Today, and Sunday, September 21, 10:00 a.m., Hastings Room Join us for two 10 O'Clock hour sessions, as we learn together about the Christian spiritual practice of discernment. From ancient monastic communities to our Puritans forebears to Quaker meetings, come find how we can make more spiritually grounded decisions in our individual lives and our life together. How can we "sort out" where God is leading us, and which among life's (and this church's!) many demands on our time has the marks of genuine calling? We hope this will be good groundwork for our fall retreat and will help us all to continue to "go deeper" in our relationships to God, self, and one another.

CHURCH SCHOOL CLASSES BEGIN TODAY After the baptism, children will be invited to transition to their classrooms for the first Sunday of classes. Church School classes meet on the middle Sundays of the month in the following locations:

- ◆ Pre-GP (3-yr-olds) - Margaret Jewett Hall Stage
 - ◆ GP 1 (preK-K) - Library
 - ◆ GP 2 (1st-2nd grade) - Choir Room
 - ◆ GP 3 (3rd -4th grade) - The Well/Rm.22
 - ◆ Middlers (5th-7th grade) - The Newtowne Library/Rm.208
- All classes will gather together at noon for singing in the Chapel.

TICKETS ARE ON SALE FOR ONE LIGHT, MANY CANDLES Tickets for Reverend Betty Stookey's and Noel Paul Stookey's October 26 concert at First Church are officially on sale. Order online (www.firstchurchcambridge.org) or purchase some today during coffee hour.

OUR WHOLE LIVES (OWL) This year our 7th and 8th graders will collaborate with other Harvard Square congregations in this comprehensive sexuality education program with a strong faith component. The group will meet most Sunday evenings from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m., with a Fun & Fellowship event this evening and a required Parent Orientation on September 21.

NIGHT SONG: SOLEMN MYSTICAL COMPLINE Tonight at 8:30 p.m., Sanctuary Night Song is based on Compline, the last daily service of Christian worship, dating back to monastic life in the Middle Ages. Offered in the quietness of the evening, Night Song invokes a sense of protection and peace for the night that is to come. Music for this Sunday: Tritone chant setting for compline by Daryl Bichel, Psalm 108 by Patricia Van Ness, Motets by Josquin des Prez: Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Dominus, Salve Regina. Beth Spaulding, soprano, Alison LaRosa Montez, alto, Daniel Rosensweig, tenor, and Daryl Bichel, bass. We will not be using incense this Sunday. Night Song will resume its start time of 7 p.m. on the first Sunday in October.

FUTURE HAPPENINGS

WEDNESDAY CHRISTIAN MEDITATION Christian Meditation is the ancient practice of opening the heart in silence to the indwelling presence of God. Join the circle any Wednesday from 6:00–7:00 p.m. in Lindsay Chapel. No experience is required, but all experience is welcome. Reach Kate Layzer at klayzer@gmail.com if you'd like to know more.

FAMILY NIGHT RETURNS, Tuesday, September 16, 5:30 - 7:00 p.m., Sage Hall

Families with young children are invited to gather in Sage Hall (the basement play space) for a simple supper, fun free play, and good conversation. We meet every other Tuesday evening, strengthening our community connection through informal fellowship and structured programs offered at various times throughout the year. The first family night of the church year is this Tuesday. Scholar-in-Residence Brent Coffin will join us on September 30 and October 14 as a follow-up to our wildly successful Lenten Series.

SPIRITUALITY & MENTAL HEALTH GROUP ON HIATUS, RESUMES SEPTEMBER

21 SMHG is on its annual summer hiatus from August 24 through September 14, and will resume on September 21. Our Spirituality and Mental Health support group provides a safe, confidential environment where questions of mental well-being can be addressed in a context of faith, drawing upon each other's gifts. After Sept 21st S&MH meets every Sunday afternoon from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. in the Tower Room. It's co-facilitated by Mary Setterholm and Carter West, both theological school graduates. Contact Carter (cartergw24@gmail.com) or Mary (mis541@mail.harvard.edu) with your questions.

PASTORAL CARE AT FIRST CHURCH Many folks have served on the Pastoral Care Team during the past year. They are the ones who have volunteered to serve for one week each month to make calls or visits, provide meals or rides, and send cards to those among us who have experienced difficulties in their lives — or to those with blessings to celebrate. Over the next few weeks we will take time to celebrate these folks, learn more about what they do, and give you a chance to provide some pastoral care of your own:

- ◆ A Time to Celebrate, Sunday, September 21 Our congregation will celebrate all the people who have served for the past year on Pastoral Care Teams. We will bless them and let them know of our gratitude for the important work they do. The liturgy and hymns on that day will focus on the ways we bring God's care to our community, trying our best to be — with God's help — God's hands, feet, loving voices, and listening ears for one another.
- ◆ A Time to Learn Sunday, September 28, 10 a.m. Would you like to know more about the ministry of the Pastoral Care Teams? Come and bring your questions, hear testimonies from those who have done this service and from those who have received care. We'll describe the nuts and bolts of how it all works. You may feel called to become part of a team!
- ◆ Send a Pastoral Care Card Before or After Church You are invited to write a simple note to First Church members who are on our weekly prayer lists. It may be to share congratulations, condolences, or get well soon wishes. Look for the "Card Table" before and after church on most Sundays. There you will find the weekly list of pastoral care needs, blank cards and pens, and a Parish List, so you can address the envelope. Just leave the completed cards on the table, and our office staff will stamp and mail them first thing Monday morning. Many thanks in advance for sharing in this important ministry of outreach and care.

YOUTH GROUP Youth Group is a fun, creative place for First Church youth and friends in 9th through 12th grades. We normally meet two Sunday afternoons each month from mid-September to May. Save the date for the following gathering. Contact Dan Smith or Stefanie Haug with any questions, and know that they'll be in touch directly with families with more details.

- ◆ Sunday, September 21 @ 2:00 p.m. SKYZONE Will gather at 2:00 for a round of our usual "high-point/low-point" check-in and then head off to Skyzone in Everett for some trampoline and 3D dodgeball fun!

FIRST CHURCH NOTE CARDS will be available for sale or to be ordered at coffee hour on September 21st and September 28th. These were created from photos taken by Gaylen Morgan with one by Dan Smith! There will also be other cards for sale with images of animals, birds and plants. All profits from sales will go to the First Church Child Care Fund. Please stop by the table and take a look. The FCC Child Care Fund supports parents of First Church children who require childcare in order to participate in Church activities that take place on days other than Sundays. Our childcare teams include not only volunteers, but also paid professionals and many of our own high school students.

FIRST CHURCH ON BOARD FOR LARGEST CLIMATE MARCH IN HISTORY

New York City, Sunday, September 21 The Earth Stewardship Team invites First Church members to consider joining the People's Climate March in New York City on Sunday, September 21. Several from our church are already planning to attend what promises to be "an unprecedented opportunity to show the strength of the climate movement on a world stage." The march will coincide with a climate summit of the world's presidents and prime ministers at United Nations Headquarters in New York in preparation for the Paris conference in 2015 that aims to enact a legally binding and universal agreement on climate change. The People's Climate March will be a demonstration to the world by the people who are standing up in our communities to shift power to a just, safe, peaceful world. If you are interested in going by train with a group from First Church, contact John Schultz, Earth Stewardship Team chair, at johnschultz831@gmail.com. Please also let him know if you are planning to travel by bus, or your automobile.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE Sunday, September 21, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m., on the Boston Common (near the Park St. Station) Celebrate the International Day of Peace with music, dance, story and art. The program will close with the recitation of names of those who have been murdered in Boston in the the past year, followed by a procession to the nearby Garden of Peace on Somerset St. More information at: www.ipdboston.com, or InternationalDayofPeace-Boston@gmail.com.

FIRST CHURCH YOUNG ADULTS OPEN HOUSE Thursday, September 25, 6:00 p.m., at the Parsonage, 44 Garden Street Whether you are just getting settled into a new apartment, a new program, a new city, or you've been coming to First Church for a while, whether you are single or coupled, LGBTQ or otherwise, "wherever you are on the journey of life or faith," come to 44 Garden Street, Cambridge (First Church's parsonage), for a relaxed evening of good food, good drink, and good conversation. No strings attached, we promise! Just a chance to get to know one another and maybe to do some wondering aloud about how faith and spirituality connect with our daily lives and especially in our hyper-connected world! Please e-mail Dan Smith, dsmith@firstchurchcambridge.org, or Julie Pridham, julie.pridham@gmail.com, if you think you can make it or if you have any questions. You can also feel free just to show up!

THE BOSTON NEW SANCTUARY MOVEMENT INTERFAITH SUMMIT Saturday, September 27, 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m., at the Arlington St. Church, 351 Boylston St., Boston This theme of this summit is Immigration Justice and it will feature a panel of immigrant rights leaders. We will hear stories from immigrant families and learn about the conditions causing the crisis of immigrant children. There is no charge and lunch will be provided. Please RSVP via Eventbrite at bit.ly/interfaithsummit, email steering@bostonnewsanctuary.org or call 617-651-2676. On Sunday, September 28th at 2 p.m. there will be a Prayer Vigil for immigrant detainees at the Suffolk County House of Correction, 20 Bradston St., Boston.

CELEBRATION OF 10 YEARS OF CREATIVE WORSHIP AND ARTS (AND A SABBATICAL SEND-OFF FOR SARAH HIGGINBOTHAM!) Sunday, September 28, during Morning Worship Join us for a very special worship service on Sunday, September 28, in which we celebrate 10 years of our Creative Worship and Arts program! We plan to offer a retrospective of some of the amazing visual arts, songs, and dance that have come out of this one-of-a-kind multigenerational program. We will also lift up and celebrate our fabulous CW&A Director, Sarah Higginbotham, before she heads off for her well deserved two months of sabbatical from early October (just after the retreat) to early December (back in time for Christmas). Sarah's deeply caring energy, her ever creative spirit, and her expertise in working with kids, families, and people of all ages have all been key elements in our church's recent growth and vitality. Come share in our heartfelt thanks and celebration of her gifts and of the 10th anniversary of this remarkable program!

A FIRST CHURCH WEDDING Karen Anne Zee and Eric Riedel joyfully invite you to their wedding on September 28, 2014 at 4 p.m., in the First Church sanctuary. There will be a reception immediately following in Margaret Jewett Hall; family and friends are welcome. Please RSVP to RiedelER@hiram.edu. The dress will be business casual, and hats are welcome. No gifts, please.

GENESIS: THE BIBLE'S STORY OF BEGINNINGS Sundays, October 12 - November 23, at 10:00 a.m., in the Tower Room Join a group of us this fall, as we begin the Bible at the beginning with the book of Genesis — the dynamic, unfolding story of creation from Adam and Eve to Cain and Abel to Noah to Abraham, Jacob, and Joseph. Written in exile after the Babylonian conquest, Genesis takes on the big questions: Who is God? Who are we, and what is our purpose in life? How did things get like this? It's a story of beginnings that never gets old. Bring your favorite Bible translation, or just bring yourself. Led by Kate Layzer.

JOIN THE RIM WALK Saturday, October 18 The Second Annual Refugee Immigration Ministry (RIM) Walk will be held at Lake Quannapowitt in Wakefield on Saturday, October 18. The RIM Walk is a public event to raise awareness about issues related to asylum-seekers and asylees on both a global and local scale. The walk will give participants an opportunity to be engaged as global citizens. 100% of the funds raised for the RIM Walk are used to support programs aimed at easing the transition of displaced people into the United States and equipping them with the necessary skills to be successful and independent in their new home country. RIM programs provide community-based aid for asylees and asylum-seekers to access housing, gain employment, seek necessary medical attention, and receive education and English-language tutoring services. Please mark your calendars for October 18, and join RIM as a walker, sponsor, or donor. Together we can form a human chain of hope for displaced people. For more information and to register online, see www.r-i-m.net

DORIS BEAUVAIS LECTURE AND LUNCHEON Sunday, October 19, in Margaret Jewett Hall, following Morning Worship. This year's lecturer is Rev. Dr. Mary Moschella, Roger J. Squire Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling at Yale Divinity School. Prof. Moschella's presentation will be based on her ongoing work developing a pastoral theological study of joy. Prior to coming to Yale, Prof. Moschella had taught for ten years at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC. Before that she had been a UCC pastor in congregations in Massachusetts for thirteen years. Her publications include Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice: An Introduction and Living Devotions: Reflections on Immigration, Identity, and Religious Imagination. She has edited, with Jane F. Maynard and Leonard Hummel, Pastoral Bearings: Lived Religion and Pastoral Theology. The lecture invites us all to remember and celebrate the example of the late Doris Beauvais, a longtime member of First Church, who played a critical role in helping to establish First Church Shelter in 1986. Doris was profoundly concerned to encourage and enable each member of our community to fulfill effectively his or her obligation to engage in a life of loving service. As is customary, there is no charge for lunch or for Prof. Moschella's presentation, but donations to support the work of First Church Shelter will be gratefully received. Plan to attend.

“ONE LIGHT, MANY CANDLES,” Sunday, October 26, 3:00 p.m., Sanctuary Join us for a multifaith program in word and song presented by the Reverend Betty Stookey and Noel Paul Stookey. This is a fundraising event for First Church. All seats are reserved — Adults $20, Students/Seniors $10. There are some limited view seats in the balcony and behind the pillars for $10. We expect the event to sell out, so tell your friends and neighbors, but reserve your seats, beginning September 12! Tickets available at: <http://www.firstchurchcambridge.org/news-and-announcements>. Tickets will also be sold at coffee hour following Morning Worship on Sundays beginning today.

SAVE THE DATE: KARIN’S INSTALLATION Sunday, November 2, 4:00 p.m. Please come and joyfully celebrate the installation of our new minister Rev. Dr. Karin A. Case on Sunday, November 2, 2014, at 4 p.m. in the sanctuary. A reception will follow in Margaret Jewett Hall.

Exodus 14:19-31
Road to Freedom

Remember making resources maps in grade school? The idea was to draw a map of a particular country and then draw symbols to represent the natural resources of that country.

If we were assigned a resource map for Guatemala now, we would have to draw the skull and crossbones symbol to represent the piracy of that country's natural resource - gold. Over the years, powerful corporations and foreign interests mined the precious metal of Guatemala without regard for the environmental concerns of its people or the lack of equality in the exchange. The documentary "Gold Fever" illustrates the injustice of international gold mining and tells the story of three women - Diodora, Crisanta and Gregoria - who have resisted the overtures and promises of the outsiders who threaten their way of life.

The Rev. Felix Ortiz-Cotto, Global Ministries Executive for Latin America and the Caribbean, said, "As people living in the United States, and as Christians, we should work to understand the connection between the mining of natural resources in Guatemala and in other parts of the world, including the United States, and the greed of corporations and individuals."

The Ecumenical Christian Council of Guatemala, a companion in mission with the UCC and Disciples of Christ, expressed a number of concerns including the arrogance and lack of respect for local decision-making on the part of mining companies, the weakness of the Guatemalan state in facing powerful foreign companies, and the lack of consultation with local community leaders. Often it is the women of the communities, as portrayed in "Gold Fever," who lead the resistance. To stop the injustices, the Council has suggested a number of changes: that the citizens be recognized as historic owners of the lands and treated as "first place" partners in decision-making; that legal steps be honored in the process; and that the need for technical assistance be recognized so that communities can develop their resources for their own benefit. First Church Covenant Testimony

Adopted 1990

We believe that our covenant with God and each other calls us:

To love God with all that we are, and our close and distant neighbors as ourselves;

To seek peace with justice and equity for all people;

To engage in non-violent resistance to evil;

To respect and preserve God's earth;

To foster community across every barrier and division;

To attend to God's unfolding and reconciling word;

To support each other in our frailties and strengths, that we may embody that love which overcomes fear and death.

This we testify, confessing always our reliance on God's grace in Christ, and in the power of the Holy Spirit.
