WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE...
Grounded in God • Growing in Community • Acting in Love

These past few weeks have brought home to all of us the vital importance of working together to slow and limit the spread of Coronavirus. We know we are called to be a community of faith, not fear. We also know we are called to care for the most vulnerable in our midst, to be good stewards of our staff and resources, and to be good citizens of the wider community.

Under normal circumstances, people of faith would care for each other by drawing close together. It's what we do. It's who we are. In times of loss or threat, we respond by coming together to pray and to sing, to hug and hold each other tight.

Pandemics are different. During an outbreak such as the one we are facing now, we are called to care for each other by moving farther apart, creating a holy buffer of social distance. We do this not only for our own safety and the safety of the people around us, but in loving stewardship to our wider world.

Even when apart, we are not alone. God is with us, in every heartbeat, every breath: strengthening, comforting, and upholding us. Christ is with us, walking beside us, sharing our trials, speaking peace to our fears. The Spirit is with us, uniting us one to another across the barrier of physical distance.

These are temporary measures only. They won't last forever. We will rejoice and celebrate all the more when we are able to come back together, to share stories of what it was like, to laugh, to cry, and to share hugs and handshakes again. Until then, day by day, let's hold one another in prayer.

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

- For Staff Composer Patricia Van Ness and her family as she mourns the loss of her husband Peter Marks. Peter died this week after a long battle with cancer.
- For Rachel Wilson, who is recovering from a recent appendectomy.
- In joyful celebration with Ally Palmer and her parents Julie Palmer and Becky Moyer. Ally, a 7th grader, placed first in her age group on uneven bars in the Massachusetts state gymnastics competition, making her a state champion!
- For Sally O'Brien and her family as they mourn the loss of her brother, David M. Campbell, who died last week in New Jersey at the age of 68.
- For Linda Ziebell, who is recovering from a recent hip surgery.
- For ongoing strength for 12-year-old Ada Grace LaMaster and the LaMaster family. Ada is making progress in her therapy for transverse myelitis and has transitioned to an accessible apartment with her family.
- For all those affected by the Coronavirus, locally and abroad, for those living in isolation and for an increasingly wary world. We pray also for frontline medical staff; for researchers; and for public health officials and leaders, who are working hard to contain the spread.
- For all who are in treatment for cancer: Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn's mother; Mark Deck, Sarah Fujiwara's brother-in-law; Amy Golodet, Jonathan New's sister-in-law; Becky Collet, Karen Anne Zee's daughter; Stewart Bailey, Karen Anne Zee's son-in-law; and Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters.
- For the 14 men who are finding care and residence in our First Church Shelter and for the guests of the Friday Cafe. In this time of disruption caused by the Coronavirus, may they know warmth, compassion, and companionship.
- For all those affected by the devastating tornadoes that touched down in Nashville recently. We pray especially for those dealing with insurmountable loss.
- We pray for those who seek sanctuary in houses of worship around the country, including our partner University Lutheran Church in Harvard Square. We pray for tranquility for immigrants who live in constant fear and anxiety. We pray for all those affected by the recent change in the public charge rule as it pertains to immigration status. And we pray for all who are working for a just and compassionate future for immigrants and asylum seekers.
- We offer up our fears and grief, and we pray for God's strength as we combat the realities of the climate crisis. May God empower us and our leaders to take bold steps, personally and politically, to care for God's creation and for the poor around the world who are most affected by our inaction.

If you would like us to include a prayer request in the bulletin, please contact Dan Smith by Tuesday morning, or fill out a prayer request card found in your pew.

HELP WITH HOMELESS MINISTRIES

ASSISTANCE NEEDED IN THE SHELTER The Shelter would welcome help at this time from First Church volunteers who are not part of an at-risk group for serious illness. The first need is for supplies and cleaning help. We are running through a lot of cleaning products and rags, trying to keep the shelter safe and hygienic. We could use large containers of powerful disinfecting products, as well as paper towels. Volunteers are also needed to help Shelter staff prepare the space after guests leave in the morning. As always, the Shelter welcomes help with providing food for guests. If you can drop off an entree (lasagna for 15?) or a dessert, let Jim know. We'll try to make it as convenient as possible. Please contact Shelter Director Jim Stewart: jstewart@firstchurchcambridge.org or 617-694-7894.

MAKE BAG LUNCHES FOR THE FRIDAY CAFE The Friday Café is closed for indoor gatherings for at least the next few weeks, but we will be keeping the supply of nutritious food flowing by handing out bag lunches on Fridays (along with socks and basic hygiene supplies). We would love your help making bag lunches at home and dropping them off at the curb on Friday afternoons from 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. You don't even have to get out of your car: Just call or text Kate Layzer at (617) 851-5074, and hand her your lunches through the car window. This is a terrific activity to do with kids (handmade notes and artwork optional!). Sign up at the link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d45aaa628ab9-friday>

OTHER OFFERS TO VOLUNTEER

If you are willing to help others in need, please fill out this survey for potential volunteers: <https://tinyurl.com/wufnnjg>. We will do our best to match you with needs as we learn about them.

STAY CONNECTED TO FIRST CHURCH

FOOD PANTRY CLIENTS NEED YOU and your generous donations now more than ever! Leave items in the box on Hilary's front porch at 30 Winslow St. , Cambridge, any time between now and April 10. We are .75 mile from First Church, just off Sherman St. where it diverges from Garden St. We will see that your donations are delivered when the pantry is open. Needed: cereal, canned fruit and veggies, proteins, pasta and sauce, also feminine products, and, maybe, even some cookies. Thank you.

MORE COMING - STAY TUNED

The Staff and Deacons will continue to assess the needs of our community, and we will be in regular communication with you via email about other ways to "make a way" together.
