WORDS OF WELCOME

ANTHEM

O Love, Who Formedst Me to Wear

W. H. Monk

*O Love, who formedst me to wear the image of Thy Godhead here,
Who soughtest me with tender care through all my wanderings wild and drear,
O Love, I give myself to Thee, Thine ever, only Thine to be.*

*O Love, who ere life's earliest dawn on my Thy choice hast gently laid;
O Love, who here as us was born, and wholly like to us wast made:
O Love, I give myself to Thee, Thine ever, only Thine to be.*

*O Love, who once in time wast slain, pierced through and through with bitter woe,
O Love, who wrestling thus didst gain that we eternal joy might know;
O Love, I give myself to Thee, Thine ever, only Thine to be.*

*O Love, who once shalt bid me rise from out this dying life of ours,
O Love, who once o'er yonder skies shalt set me in the fadeless bowers;
O Love, I give myself to Thee, Thine ever, only Thine to be.*

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for a Shelter guest who was recently diagnosed with gastric cancer and will be starting chemotherapy.
- We pray for First Church Sexton Kimel Williams, who is taking a medical leave of absence for an injured back.
- We pray for Perry Neubauer, who is recovering from recent heart valve replacement surgery and is awaiting kidney stone surgery.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer: Pauline Fennel; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones's mother; Abby Shuman's uncle Barry; Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn's mother; Karen Anne Zee's daughter Becky Collet, and her sons-in-law, Denis Collet and Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters.
- We pray for all who are facing severe, dangerous heat in the midwest and southwest and for all who are impacted by unprecedented flooding and wildfires.
- We pray for all those grieving the loss of over 50 people in an apparent human smuggling operation found recently in San Antonio, Texas, and we pray for healing for those who have survived. We pray that lawmakers might see past their partisan differences to address the basic human rights of migrants seeking a new home.
- We pray for the people of southeast Afghanistan, who experienced a 5.9 magnitude earthquake that killed over 1,000 people and injured many more.
- We pray for all those impacted by the July 4 mass shooting in Highland Park, and we lift up all those terrorized by shootings that are occurring much too frequently in our nation. We lift up those who are feeling lost and worried to live in their skin, to go to their grocery stores, their schools, their workplaces, and their houses of worship after witnessing these events. We pray for an end to this violence and the fear it instills.
- We pray for the family and friends mourning the death of Jayland Walker, who was shot by police in Akron, Ohio. We pray for the city of Akron and for our nation, as we struggle to confront policing bias that results in the senseless deaths of too many Black and brown people.
- In the wake of the overturning of Roe v. Wade, we pray for those facing the loss of vital reproductive rights, and all those who care about them. We also pray for compassion, wisdom, grace, and courage, as the public discourse around abortion may cause each of us to wrestle with our own thoughts and feelings surrounding the complexities of this issue.
- We pray for the people of Ukraine and for people in war-torn areas around the world. We pray for all troops and civilians, and for bordering countries receiving refugees.

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for all who are affected by COVID-19—those experiencing symptoms, those grieving the loss of loved ones, and those awaiting vaccines and boosters. We pray with and for anxious hearts, especially for educators, healthcare personnel, and other essential workers.
- We pray for all transgender and gender non-conforming people who are experiencing hostility, discrimination, and violence across the country, in connection with the increased number of legislative actions that negatively impact their civil rights.
- We pray for resilience in our work for the environment following the recent Supreme Court ruling on West Virginia v. Environmental Protection Agency that limits EPA’s ability to restrict greenhouse gas emissions from power plants. God, redirect our hearts towards your unending hope. Endow us with the strength and courage needed for the climate and environmental justice work that lies ahead.
- We pray for the 14 men who are finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter, and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding food and listening ears. We pray for all who are experiencing deprivation and hardship in these uncertain times.

Pastoral Care Cards this Summer

During the summer months, we invite you to support our Pastoral Care ministry by writing a simple note to First Church members who are on our weekly prayer list. It may be to share congratulations, condolences, or "get well soon" wishes. Look for the "card table" at Coffee Hour each Sunday, where you'll find the weekly list of pastoral care needs and/or the Sunday bulletin prayer section, blank cards, pens, and a Church Directory with addresses. We have also included stamps and return address labels.

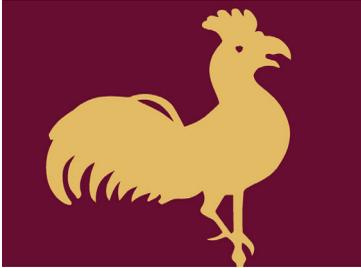

Please affix to the completed cards and place them in one of the mailboxes on Garden St. as you leave (corner of Garden and Mason or corner of Garden and Berkeley). If you'd like to write cards from home, use the online bulletin and Church Directory found in the "Quick Links" on the Members & Friends page of our website. Many thanks in advance for sharing in this important ministry of outreach and care.

Would you like to join one of our Pastoral Care Teams to write cards, visit members, or deliver meals September through June? Contact Care Team Coordinator Susie Neubauer to learn more: susieneubauer@gmail.com.

SUMMER AT FIRST CHURCH

Leadership Retreat Summary & Opportunities to Offer Input

In early June, 35 members of our Executive Council, Board of Deacons, and Staff met for an after-church leadership retreat. We tried to take stock of where we've been since Covid and where we are now. We invited leaders to share both celebrations and questions around several key areas of our life together. Imagine Margaret Jewett Hall set up around 5 newsprint stations with lots of colorful scribbles under these topics:

- Hybrid Worship and Community
- Our Financial Life
- Our Staffing Model
- Becoming an Antiracist Church
- Everything Else!

And now, we'd love to hear from you!

For a summary of our celebrations and questions, please click here.

For a chance to add your own celebrations and questions, please click here.

If you are interested in joining a summer gathering where we can share in conversation about all of the above, please sign up here.

After a time of being apart for so long, the retreat and these ongoing exercises are helping us to orient and share a common sense of where we are! Stay tuned for more opportunities this fall, as we continue to celebrate and deepen our discernment about where God is leading us next.

Summer Hours

Through the months of July and August, Hybrid Morning Worship begins at 10:00 a.m., with pick-up choir meeting at 9:15 a.m.

Over the summer, church school-aged children are invited to remain in the sanctuary for the entire worship service. The Nursery continues to be staffed by our regular caregivers for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers.

During the summer, the church building closes at 2:00 p.m. from Thursday through Sunday. The building is open for regular hours Monday through Wednesday. A Sexton is in the building when it is open.

SUMMER AT FIRST CHURCH

Summer Book Reading Groups

Looking to dive into a book this summer with members of First Church? We have two book groups running this summer, one in July and one in August:

All That She Carried: The Journey of Ashley's Sack, a Black Family Keepsake by Tiya Miles

Thursdays at 7:00 p.m., June 30 – July 28

Please email Hilary Hopkins (hopkinsjh@verizon.net) to RSVP and receive Zoom info.

The Flag, the Cross and the Station Wagon: A Graying American Looks Back at His Suburban Boyhood and Wonders What the Hell Happened by Bill McKibben

Tuesdays at 5:00 p.m., August 2 - 16

Please email Dan Smith (dsmith@firstchurchcambridge.org) to RSVP and receive Zoom info.

Young Adults: Faith on Tap

Monday, July 18, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m., Vera's in Union Square

Join other First Church 20- and 30-somethings for some casual fellowship.

We get together a few times monthly for walks, drinks, and conversation.

Given the nature of being in a university town, FCC attracts a mix of students who're checking out church for the first time in a while, folks who've just moved to town looking for friends: the conversation and company is always changing. All are welcome, especially those new to First Church or exploring a new faith path. Reach out to Phil at: youngadults@firstchurchcambridge.org to get on the mailing list. Text Phil you're coming: 585-610-7919. See you soon!

Neighborhood Prayer Walks

This Saturday, July 23, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

The Deacons invite you to a walk around our neighborhood of Cambridge to explore the area surrounding our church. Gather for a brief Deacon-led prayer before we take an easy stroll through different parts of Cambridge ending in lunch or coffee at a locally owned Cambridge business. This Saturday, join us outside the Central Square T stop, where we will be exploring this bustling part of Cambridge and heading to Cicada for lunch (Patio seating available). Cicada is a woman-owned Vietnamese coffee house specializing in Vietnamese coffee and cuisine. For more information check out their instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/cicadacoffeebar/> Contact Beth Spaulding or Lexi Boudreaux if you have any questions or want to let us know that you already are planning on coming!

Catch Up on our First Church Blog

The First Church Blog Water in the Wilderness has two recent posts for you to explore. Stewardship Chair Joanne Paul reflects on why the Stewardship Committee is involved with Covenant Dinners, while First Church member Kindle Williams writes about her experience of reparations as a spiritual practice.

Find ***Water in the Wilderness*** under “Learn and Grow” on our website, where you can see posts going back to the blog’s inception in March 2020.

Frobenius Restoration Underway

The first phase of our Frobenius organ restoration is already well underway! A small motor has been sent to Germany for repair. Pipes are being removed and cleaned, one pipe and one section at a time. This allows us to use the organ, albeit at limited capacity, even as the work is underway. You can see here what a difference the polishing makes; the left side is “before,” and the right, “after.”

We have good news, too, about our fundraising efforts to date.

We are over halfway to our total goal of $160,000! Thank you to First Church and to the wider community for “piping up” to support our “wondrous machine” and the beauty it creates.

Come fall, stay tuned for an announcement of our next concert and more opportunities to celebrate, learn about and support our beloved Frobenius at 50! If you have not had a chance to participate or sponsor-a-pipe, please visit here!

Support the Fair Share Amendment

Do you know about the Fair Share Amendment, which will appear on the Massachusetts ballot this November? Fair Share is a proposed amendment to tax 4% of the portion of a person’s annual income over $1 million to fund public education and transportation in our state. If you would like to support this economic and climate justice initiative, the Missions & Social Justice Committee invites you to help get it passed by canvassing, making calls, and joining other volunteer opportunities throughout the summer and early fall. More information is available at: fairsharema.com/volunteer
