VOLUNTARY

Psalm XIX

Benedetto Marcello

HYMN 461

We Cannot Own the Sunlit Sky

GREETING

Casey Marsh

L: Siblings in the Spirit, come in, and know the goodness of God's love!

C: Enter into this sanctuary of rest and healing.

L: Come in, and know this community of justice of joy.

C: Come in, and hear stories of hope and challenge;
drink of God's beauty and mercy!

L: Friends, gather and regather, from near and far,
enter anew into this space of wonder and grace,

All: and let us praise and worship God!

WORDS OF WELCOME

ANTHEM

Know That God Loves You

Carson Cooman

Know that God loves you.

God's command is this: "Love one another as I have loved you."

For neither death nor life, nor present nor future, shall separate us from the love of God.

CONFESSION

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

SUNG PRAYER

Lord, prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true.

With thanksgiving, I'll be a living sanctuary for you!

PRAYERS FOR THE CHURCH AND WORLD

Karen McArthur

L: God be with you.

C: And also with you.

L: Let us pray... (silence, intercessions, and the Lord's Prayer)

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Please pray this prayer in words most meaningful to your heart.)

All: Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY

Spirit of Jesus, If I Love My Neighbor

Wren/Tucker

*Spirit of Jesus, if I love my neighbor out of my knowledge, leisure, power or wealth,
Help me to understand the shame and anger of helplessness that hates my power to help.
And if, when I have answered need with kindness, my neighbor rises, weakened from despair,
Keep me from flinching when the cry for justice requires of me the changes that I fear.
If I am hugging safety or possessions, uncurl my spirit, as your love prevails:
To join my neighbors, work for liberation, and find my freedom as the mark of nails.*

DOXOLOGY

Praise God, the source of life and birth,
Praise God, the Word who came to earth,
Praise God, the Spirit, holy flame,
All glory, honor to God’s name. Amen.

First Church Land Acknowledgment

We, gathered here, acknowledge that we are meeting on land which has been the traditional ancestral homeland of the Massachusett people. We acknowledge that this land is unceded and remains sacred to the Massachusett, and to their close neighbors and relatives, the Nipmuc and Wampanoag peoples.

You can find a longer version of this acknowledgment here or by scanning the QR code to the right.

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray in joyful celebration for First Church members Robb Morgan and Claire Hunt Morgan, who were married last Saturday in Greensboro, VT.
- We pray for the family and friends of Pauline Fennel. Pauline died at home on Tuesday, September 13, surrounded by her family.
- We pray for Alice Kidder, who is facing ongoing health challenges.
- We pray for Marian Smith, who is recovering from surgery for a broken hip.
- We pray for Lexi Boudreaux, who is grieving the loss of her grandmother Jeanette Beth Wall.
- We pray for Kirsten Manville's father Keith, who is continuing his recovery from a serious fall.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer: Anita Anger; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones's mother; Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn's mother; Karen Anne Zee's daughter Becky Collet, and her sons-in-law, Denis Collet and Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters; and friend of Homeless Ministries Brian O'Donovan.
- We pray for the people of Puerto Rico as they face the brutal effects of Hurricane Fiona.
- We pray for the people of Haiti, where water, food, and fuel shortages are leading to widespread protests, violence, and civil unrest.
- We pray for migrants caught up in the politicized actions of governors who are sending them across the country with no preparation or concern for their welfare. May our state and national leaders find ways forward that show respect and compassion for all persons fleeing their homes and seeking a better life.
- We pray for the residents of Jackson, MS, who are experiencing a catastrophic water emergency stemming from years of neglect rooted in systemic racism.
- We pray for those experiencing the loss of vital reproductive rights across the nation, and all those who care about them, especially as threats of a national abortion ban loom.
- We pray for the people of Ukraine as they continue to live through war and heightened concern of escalation.
- We pray for all who are affected by COVID-19, especially for educators, healthcare personnel, and other essential workers.
- We pray for the 14 men who are finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter, and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding food and listening ears. We pray for all who are experiencing deprivation and hardship in these uncertain times.

In Memoriam

A memorial service for longtime, beloved First Church member Pauline Fennel will take place on All Saints Sunday, November 6, at 2:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary and via livestream with a reception to follow. Pauline died on Tuesday, September 13, 2022, following a year-long struggle with cancer.

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

Celebrating Our ONA History—Faithfully
(& Queerfully) Responding to the Present
Today, 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.

Harter Room and via Zoom

Join us as we celebrate our history as an Open and Affirming (ONA) congregation since 1991! Grounded in our faith, we will discern together how we can continue to lovingly embrace our LGBTQ+ siblings—especially our trans and non-binary siblings, whose civil rights are under attack across our nation.

We will talk about and give thanks to God for a wide breadth of sexualities and genders, and for every color on the rainbow that connects us all as beloved children, deeply cherished by our Creator.

Refreshments on the Lawn and Zoom Coffee Hour
Today at 12:00 p.m.

Join us in person or online for social connection and the making of new friends. For those on the lawn, come witness and/or help with the planting of a new Pollinator Garden in a flower bed by the playground fence!

Art Showcase: Doors of Paradise
Today, 12:00 p.m., Margaret Jewett Hall

See ten oil paint panels as one narrative, based on the bas-relief sculpture of Ghiberti, circa 1450. Those doors open to the San Giovanni Duomo baptistry in Florence, Italy. First Church member Henry Gates revives Christian art history to envision Biblical narrative in Genesis to Kings, exploring family and tribal dramas that may speak to our time and faith. We can imagine our matters of ethics—love, power and justice—that were at issue three thousand years ago.

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

Newcomer Session After Worship Today 12:30 p.m., Harter Room and via Zoom

We are hosting the second drop-in opportunity to explore what membership at First Church in Cambridge means and to learn more about the history and values of our community. Current members of First Church who are interested in engaging in these conversations and in being a resource for those who are newer are invited to join! Come with your questions, your story, and your appetite for new connections. Light snacks will be provided.

Our Whole Lives (OWL) for 7/8th Graders

Today, 1:30 - 3:00 p.m., Old South Church, Boston

7th and 8th graders meet for OWL, a comprehensive sexuality education curriculum produced by the United Church of Christ and the Unitarian Universalist Association.

Confirmation Class for 9/10th graders

Today, 1:30 - 3:00 p.m., Harter Room

Our year-long Confirmation journey for 9th and 10th graders begins today with a session entitled "Faith and Belief."

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

Cambridge: Envisioning Reparations

Today at 2:00 p.m., Sanctuary and via livestream

Join us for a panel discussion about reparations in our city - past, present and future.

Moderated by Richard Harding, Jr., Vice President, Cambridge NAACP, panelists include:

- Kris Manjapra
*Professor of History, Tufts University;
Founder, Black History in Action for Cambridgeport*
- Rev. Irene Monroe
Speaker, Theologian, Syndicated Columnist
- Ken Reeves
President, Cambridge NAACP
- Rev. Daniel Smith
Senior Minister, First Church in Cambridge, UCC

Young Adults: Kayaking

Today, 4:00 - 5:30 p.m., Paddle Boston, Kendall Square

Join other First Church 20- and 30-somethings for fellowship. You're invited to join us today for some kayaking, compliments of FCC! All are welcome, especially those new to First Church or exploring a new faith path. We get together a few times monthly for walks, drinks, and conservation. To get on the Young Adults mailing list, send an email to: youngadults@firstchurchcambridge.org. Text Phil you're coming to kayak: 585-610-7919.

Night Song

Sundays, 7:30 - 8:15 p.m.

Sanctuary and via livestream

Today, a new ensemble of women will sing, with Teri Kowiak as director. Canticum vespertinum, the mixed ensemble directed by Jennifer Lester, will sing on September 25. Please join us and tell your friends! Night Song is a worship opportunity that offers stillness and sublime music in a darkened sanctuary for respite and reset...

FALL AT FIRST CHURCH

First Church Returns to Craigville for our All-Church Fall Retreat

Friday, September 30 - Sunday, October 2

We can't wait to gather with almost 60 First Church folks at Craigville next weekend! All participants should have received an email from Sarah this past week entitled "All-Church Fall Retreat 2022: Information for Participants." If you (or your spouse/partner) did NOT receive this email, please be in touch with Sarah ASAP to get all the details and make sure you're on the list. And stay tuned for another important email this week about room assignments and last-minute details.

Fair Share Forum

Sunday, Oct 2, 12:15 - 1:00 p.m.

Harter Room and via Zoom

Come meet with Jonathan Cohn, a policy director at Progressive Massachusetts and the MetroNorth Coordinator, to learn more about the Fair Share Amendment and how you can support this economic and climate justice initiative. If you are joining us on the retreat - don't worry! We will record the forum for anyone who is not able to make it.

Fair Share is a proposed amendment that will appear on the Massachusetts ballot this November to tax 4% of the portion of a person's annual income over $1 million to fund public education and transportation in our state. More information is available at:

Family Night Reunion: NEW DATE!

Tuesday, October 4, 6:00 - 7:30 p.m.

The Parsonage, 44 Garden St.

For many years before 2020, First Church families with young children would gather on Tuesday evenings in Sage Hall for a simple pasta potluck dinner. Now, all those who participated in Tuesday Family Nights are warmly invited to a reunion!

Join us for pizza and potluck at the Parsonage on Tuesday, October 4, where we'll reconnect over a meal and consider what else we might need from each other and the wider First Church community. Bring your kids, if they are still bringable, or not. Bring a side dish or dessert to share, or not. Most importantly, bring yourself to catch up with other parents still on the journey, no matter the age of their children. RSVP to Will Erickson and/or Sarah Higginbotham so we can plan the pizza order!

FALL AT FIRST CHURCH

Where Are We Now?

Perspectives on the American Church

Sundays, October 9 & 16, 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.,

Harter Room and via Zoom

Behind all of the headlines about religion in the United States and all of the threats of polarization and evidence of dwindling church membership, there are deeper stories to tell.

Picking up from our summer read of Bill McKibben's memoir,

The Flag, the Cross and the Station Wagon, we will look at the big picture of what researchers have learned about the strengths and weaknesses of American church life and what they've concluded about the future of mainline Protestantism. We will think together about what it all means for First Church and how we relate to that bigger story. First Church Deacon Peggy Bendroth will lead our exploration and discussion. Peggy is the former director of the Congregational Library and Archives, and a historian of American religion with an abiding interest in all of this—past, present, and future.

Reflective Conversations with Brent Coffin on the Parables of Jesus

Tuesdays, beginning October 11,

7:15 - 8:45 a.m., via Zoom

In a new series of small group sessions via Zoom, Brent Coffin will lead as we share in weekly reflection about the parables of Jesus, bringing these ancient and often confounding stories into conversation with our own stories and lives. Meetings will start on Tuesday morning, October 11, from 7:15 a.m. to 8:45 a.m. A time of informal check-in will begin promptly at 7:15, followed by framing remarks from Brent, with space for intimate small group listening and sharing to follow.

EcoFaith Book Group

Thursday, October 13, 5:00 - 6:00 p.m., via Zoom

You are warmly invited to join the Earth Stewardship group for their next EcoFaith Book Group meeting. Water Always Wins, Thriving in an Age of Doubt and Deluge examines the special role water plays in our lives as we negotiate droughts and downpours brought on by climate change. Author Erica Gies looks at the history, science, and meaning of water, and reports on special situations from around the world. Together, we will consider how our Christian faith intersects with the issues raised. All are welcome!

Musical Exploration of the Psalms
Saturday, October 22 at 2:00 p.m.
Old South Church, Boston

Our friends at Old South Church invite us to this unique interactive event that uses live musical performances as a springboard for discussion about Scripture and faith.

Participants gather to hear world-premiere performances of brand-new musical compositions inspired by the Psalms, then join each other in conversation about the ways these pieces help us experience and understand Scripture. Almost like a “musical Bible study”, this spiritual formation event brings to life these ancient texts in meaningful and memorable ways.

This free event is open to all. No musical experience is necessary, just a willingness to open your hearts to Scripture in a new way!

First Church Shelter presents
the 2022 Doris Beauvais Luncheon and Mitch Snyder Awards
Sunday, October 30, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m
Margaret Jewett Hall

The Shelter Oversight Committee hopes you will make time to attend this year's Doris Beauvais Luncheon. The event commemorates and recommends the leadership and example of the late Doris Beauvais, a First Church member who, 35 years ago, played a crucial role in the First Church community's decision to open and support a shelter for homeless adults. The luncheon will be free; donations to support First Church Homeless Ministries will be gratefully accepted.

The 2022 Mitch Snyder Awards will also be presented. This year's recipients include:

- Chris Alba, Substance Substance Use Initiative, Revere
- Kim Powers, Access Hope
- Mary Wheeler, Healthy Streets, Lynn
- Joe Freitas, First Church Shelter
- Nikki Bell, Living in Freedom Together, Worcester

DARBY VASSALL QUIET DAY

at CHRIST CHURCH (kids are welcome!)

Join us for a contemplative retreat focusing on the extraordinary life and activism of Darby Vassall, who was buried in the Christ Church crypt at his own request in 1861.

Need childcare to attend the quiet day, or interested in your child spending some time learning alongside you? A Godly Play session will be offered, using one of the new "People of Color Who Inspire" stories, followed by supervised arts and crafts and playtime for children PreK through 5th grade.
