THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Please pray this prayer in words most meaningful to your heart.)

All: Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

Where Are We Now?

Perspectives on the American Church

Today 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.

Harter Room and via Zoom

Behind all of the headlines about religion in the United States and all of the threats of polarization and evidence of dwindling church membership, there are deeper stories to tell.

Picking up from our summer read of Bill McKibben's memoir,

The Flag, the Cross and the Station Wagon, we will look at the big picture of what researchers have learned about the strengths and weaknesses of American church life and what they've concluded about the future of mainline Protestantism. We will think together about what it all means for First Church and how we relate to that bigger story. First Church Deacon Peggy Bendroth will lead our exploration and discussion. Peggy is the former director of the Congregational Library and Archives, and a historian of American religion with an abiding interest in all of this—past, present, and future.

Today is a Healing Sunday

In Morning Worship, we have an opportunity to reflect together on God's healing peace and to participate in a simple healing ritual involving a brief prayer, laying on of hands, and—for those who wish—anointing with oil, an ancient Christian practice now being revived across the ecumenical spectrum of churches. At the time of the sermon, we offer instead a brief introduction to the ritual and then invite forward all who would like to participate. For those who prefer to remain seated, there will be music and a time of silence for individual prayers.

Invitation to Contribute to Coffee Hour

Please help us make worship as delicious as it is spiritually sustaining! For Coffee Hour each week, we are looking for 2-4 households to bring 3 dozen cookies each, or the equivalent of snacks, such as cheese & crackers or fruit. In general, the church has a "No Nuts" policy; a brief list of relevant ingredients for those with allergies would be appreciated. Please leave food donations on the kitchen island. Thank you for providing sustenance for our gathered community!

FALL AT FIRST CHURCH

Rev. James Ross, Guest Preacher Next Sunday, October 23

We are so pleased to welcome Rev. James Ross as our guest preacher in Morning Hybrid Worship on October 23. Church Staffing and Finance Forum Sunday, October 23, 12:15 - 1:30 p.m. Harter Room and via Zoom

Join church leaders for an important after-worship conversation about our church's finances and future staffing plans. Given Covid, we're just now coming through a highly unusual stretch, in terms of our demands and opportunities related to our staff and budget. We are now needing a clear-eyed assessment and realignment of where we are and where we are going in our ministry. We welcome, need, and value your input and insight in this moment of challenge and opportunity!

The United Church of Christ has launched an emergency appeal to help with response and recovery. The UCC “Hurricanes 2022” appeal will be used to help those impacted by Hurricanes Ian and Fiona – and storms still to come.

LOOKING AHEAD TO NOVEMBER

Adult Formation: The Doctrine of Discovery
Sundays, November 13 & 20, 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.
Harter Room and via Zoom

The Christian Formation Committee invites you to a two-part series on the Doctrine of Discovery.

November 13: Session 1

What exactly is the “Doctrine of Discovery?”

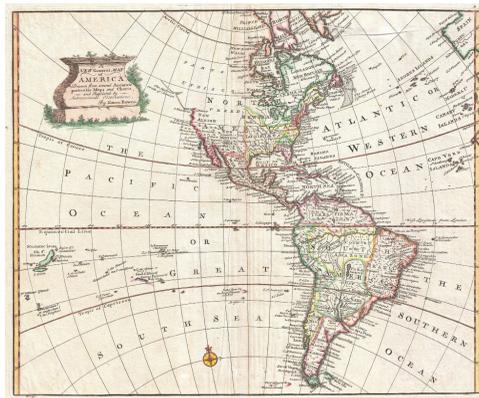

Did you ever hear of Johnson v. McIntosh?

What is “Manifest Destiny?”

How did, and how do, these rulings affect Native Americans? We’ll view a TED talk by a powerful American Indian speaker and explore some issues it raises.

November 20: Session 2

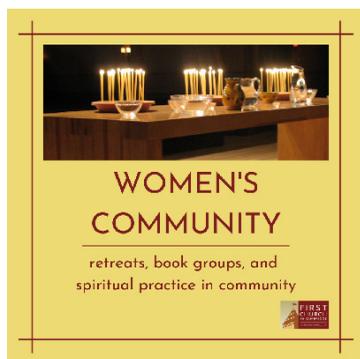

We’ll talk religion. How might our theology blind us to American Indian spiritual identity? The Promised Land: promised to whom by whom? How can the church support a new sense of God’s mission among American Indian Christians? We’ll view a video prepared by the Episcopal church, which was the first denomination to repudiate the Doctrine of Discovery.

Women’s Community Book Club

Tuesday, November 15, 6:00 - 7:30 p.m., via Zoom

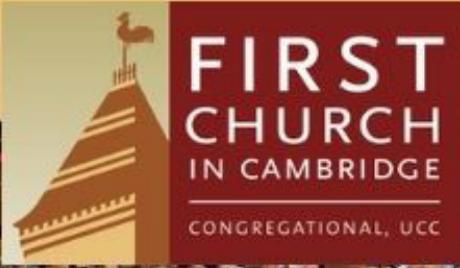

All First Church people who identify as women are invited to join us for a discussion of The Sentence by Louise Erdrich. We promise to have a thoughtful and lively discussion of Erdrich’s newest novel. If you have trouble finding the book, let us know, and we will do our best to find one for you.
