GREETING

Rose Whaley

L: The peace of God be with you:

C: and God's mercy, abundant and free!

L: Come in, be at home in this place of grace and gratitude.

C: Be at rest in this space of hope!

L: Trust that God will show us the way forward,

C: and God will sustain us, now and into the future.

L: Day by day, God will give us what we need!

C: All praise be to God, the almighty Giver!

WORDS OF WELCOME AND LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

All: We, gathered here, acknowledge that we are meeting on land which has been the traditional ancestral homeland of the Massachusett people. We acknowledge that this land is unceded and remains sacred to the Massachusett, and to their close neighbors and relatives, the Nipmuc and Wampanoag peoples. We acknowledge and deplore the violence and erasure perpetrated upon Indigenous peoples and their lands in the name of this country, and by our First Church forebears. We commit to ongoing listening, learning and acting in ways that honor Indigenous peoples and the land.

CONFESSING

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

SILENCE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

L: Let us pray:

All: Holy and beloved God, we give you thanks for this day,
for cycles of discernment and celebration, of giving and receiving.
You know our anxieties and fears, God.
You know when we hold back our love,
and when we withdraw from yours.
Lead us God, to give and receive, freely and without fear.
In this season of harvest and thanksgiving,
help us trust that there will always be plenty,
so that our connection with you is deepened
and our relationships strengthened, in Jesus' name. Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

*GREETING OF PEACE

Please turn to your immediate neighbors and offer a handshake, or a hug! Or if you prefer to maintain social distance, fold your hands or arms in a sign of peace. We want everyone to be comfortable; today let there be no spiritual distance between us.

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for Sexton George Williams, who is recovering from emergency eye surgery this past Wednesday.
- We pray for Ginny Harlan's son Michael and his family, who live in Louisville, as Michael has just been diagnosed with Mantle Cell Lymphoma.
- We pray for Krysia Burnham, who is recovering from hip surgery.
- We pray for Alice Kidder, who is now recovering in a rehab facility after an extended hospital stay for various serious medical issues.
- We pray for Jennifer Petrallia, who is suffering from debilitating anxiety and depression.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer and other ongoing health challenges: Carol Wilson-Braun, who is managing ALS; Jim Rae, Ami Brenner's father; Ellen Smith, Devin Hansen's aunt; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones's mother; Karen Anne Zee's daughter Becky Collet, and her son-in-law Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters.
- We pray for the many families seeking emergency shelter in cities and towns across Massachusetts.
- We pray for all those in Lewiston, ME, and the surrounding towns, as they continue to cope with their shared experience of a tragic mass shooting. We continue to pray and advocate for common sense national gun control legislation.
- We pray for workers who are unemployed, laid off, or displaced. We pray for immigrants waiting for work permits or desperate for work, and for union workers who are striking for better pay and working conditions.
- We continue to pray for all impacted by and recovering from recent natural and climate related disasters, most recently the hurricane in Mexico. We continue to pray for our rapidly warming planet and for redoubled efforts to reduce fossil fuel emissions.
- We pray for all those impacted by the violence of war and political upheaval, including in Ukraine, Sudan, and Haiti. As we prepare to welcome two refugees through the Welcome Corps, we pray for all political and climate refugees and migrants who make often life-threatening border crossings over land and open water.
- We pray for the wellbeing and safety of our trans and gender non-conforming siblings as they face the impact of vitriolic public discourse and of state laws that restrict and criminalize transgender health care, personal expression, and wider LGBTQ+ education.
- We pray for those most affected by changes in reproductive rights: for all those struggling with the moral and political complexities of pregnancy and childbearing, and for patients and healthcare providers who are unable to give and receive care in their own states.
- We pray for the 14 men finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter; and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding resources and listening ears.

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

Prayer for Israel and Palestine

We pray for an end to the war and the heartwrenching violence in Israel and Palestine. We pray for all hostages and their families; for those living in daily fear for their and their loved ones' safety; and for all who are grieving the thousands of deaths of Israelis, Palestinians, and others in Israel, Gaza, and around the world, including members of our congregation who have close ties with people who are currently in the area.

We decry the horrifically violent Hamas attacks against Israel on October 7. We decry retaliation that involves violence against civilians, including deprivation of water, fuel, and food in Gaza. We pray for redoubled diplomatic efforts to address the escalating humanitarian crisis in Gaza and the ongoing occupation of Palestinian territories. We continue to pray for a just peace in Israel and Palestine and throughout the region. We also pray for Jews and Muslims, nearby and around the world, who are facing increased threats and acts of anti-Semitic and anti-Muslim discrimination, hatred, and violence.

We pray for ourselves, that we will be faithful, compassionate, and open to God's love and leading, and to all whom we encounter through these tension-filled times. Across whatever division or disagreement, may our words and deeds seek to honor the humanity and God-given dignity of every human being.

54th Annual National Day of Mourning

Thursday, November 23 at 12:00 p.m.

Cole's Hill, above Plymouth Rock, Plymouth, MA

Since 1970, Indigenous people & their allies have gathered at noon on Cole's Hill in Plymouth to commemorate a National Day of Mourning on the US Thanksgiving holiday. Many Native people do not celebrate the arrival of the Pilgrims & other European settlers. Thanksgiving Day is a reminder of the genocide of millions of Native people, the theft of Native lands and the erasure of Native cultures. Participants in National Day of Mourning honor Indigenous ancestors and Native resilience. It is a day of remembrance and spiritual connection, as well as a protest against the racism and oppression that Indigenous people continue to experience worldwide. Join us as we continue to create a true awareness of Native peoples and history. Help shatter the untrue image of the Pilgrims and the unjust system based on racism, settler colonialism, sexism, homophobia and the profit-driven destruction of the Earth that they and other European settlers introduced to these shores. 1. Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, raise the song of har-vest home;
 2. All the bless-ings of the field, all the stores the gar-dens yield,

THE COCKEREL HAS LANDED!

The great gilded cockerel weathervane that has stood atop First Church in Cambridge for the last 150 years came down on November 15, 2023, to protect it from further damage caused by extreme weather, pollution, and its own venerable age. Under a bright blue sky, three men climbed into the basket of a giant crane and ascended about 100 feet. Hovering above the tip of the church's bell tower, they carefully lifted the 172-pound cockerel from its perch and brought it down in the basket with them.

Once on the ground, the cockerel posed for photographs. Dan Smith, Senior Minister of First Church in Cambridge, offered a blessing. Then the cockerel was placed in a wooden crate custom-built to fit its dimensions -- 5 feet 5 inches high and 5 feet 4 inches wide. Finally, the secured crate was lifted onto a secure truck and taken for temporary storage at a facility that specializes in the protection of works of art, which the cockerel is.

Now that the cockerel is down, what happens next? That question is in the process of being answered. First Church in Cambridge is a Congregational church, which means that all major decisions, from approving an annual budget to calling a new minister, are made by the congregation as a whole. This has been First Church's practice since it was "gathered in the Spirit" in 1636.

The Congregational process requires careful listening to many voices, thoughtful deliberation, and prayerful discernment. It also may require many meetings. The process to determine next steps for the cockerel is well under way. There have been listening sessions and input from church members and the public. There is still information to be gathered, such as an assessment of the cockerel's current condition. There is more discussion to be had, but a framework of options is emerging.

First Church in Cambridge is located in the Old Cambridge Historic District, so it requested and received approval from the Cambridge Historical Commission to bring the cockerel down and place it in temporary safe storage. First Church will return to the Commission within six months with a final proposal for its ancient cockerel weathervane.

We can become elders together as we seek dignity, courage, grace, hope, peace, and wisdom in the ending phase of our lives. We are using Joan Chittister's book The Gift of Years as a starting point to conversation and reflection, and our reading for this month is "Religion" (pp. 101 - 105). Please remember to come prepared to share a passage from the reading that is particularly compelling for you. LOOKING AHEAD TO ADVENT

Advent 2023

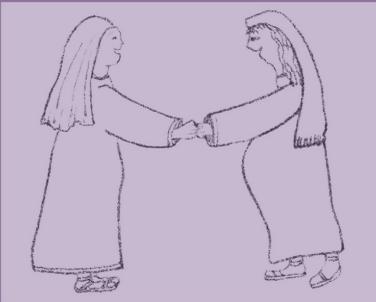

O Come, O Come

O Come, O Come

O Come ...what? What are we longing for? Is it peace? Is it justice? Is it solace or silence? Is it healing or wholeness? Is it a simple gift of love? For what is your heart most yearning and waiting in this season of Advent? The familiar hymn O Come, O Come, Emmanuel reminds us, eventually, that it is ours to “Rejoice! Rejoice!” For Emmanuel, which means “God with us” comes at Christmas! But first, in this season of anticipation, we are invited to slow down, to wonder, to wait, to pray, and to prepare our hearts, to make space in our souls. “God with us” comes to us and meets us right where we are. Join us this Advent in worship and community, in study and small groups, as we yearn, sing, and pray together ... O Come, O Come...!
